LOCAL NEWS.

FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 15. CIRCUIT COURT-THURSDAY-Judge H. W Thomas presiding.—CHANCERY SIDE.—Joshua Lippincott et ux., et al., vs. Agnes Dundas, et al.—in chancery. A decree of sale was made in this cause, and S. F. Beach appointed commissioner of sale.

B. F. Rittenhouse vs. Charles E. Rittenhouse, et al. in chancery-decree of sale made, and S. F. Beach appointed commissioner. Stevens & Phelps vs. E. R. Lippett, et al. - in chancery. It was decreed that the plaintiffs pay to the defendants the sum of one thousand dollars, with interest; and unless the said sum and interest be paid within ninety days from the adjournment of the Court, it is ordered and decreed that the road in the possession of plaintiffs, its rights, profits and priveleges be placed in the hands of Wm. H. Marbury as receiver, who shall give boud in the penalty of ten thousand dollars to abide by any future decree of the Court.

COMMON LAW SIDE. - J. F. Webb vs. Robt. B. Bagby-in case-judgment against defendapt for $449.44, with interest on $350, part thereof, from May 13, 1857, and on $75 from September 15, 1858, and on $24.44, another part thereof, from December 6, 1862, till paid, and costs.

James, Smith & Button vs. Chapman, Lyon & Noyes-upon a supersedeas to a judgment of the Court Court of Alexandria. The parties appeared by their attorneys, and the transcript of the record of the said judgment being inspected, it seemed to the Court that there was no error in the said judgment, and it was considered that the defendants recover of the plaintiffs their costs about this suit expended. Court adjourned till 10 o'clock to-day.

To-DAY. -Sophia R. Moore vs. Thomas M. McCormisk and S. F. Beach-decree in favor of plaintiff for $2,000, with interest from Sept. 1st, 1860, till paid, and the real estate mentioned in the bill to be sold.

Crook, et ux., vs. Cline, et als.-decree of reference to ascertain the possibility of partition. Callan vs. Wheat-in case-judgment for plaintiff for $1,000.

Moore vs. Marshall, et als. -injunction dissolved, and property ordered to be sold. Laphen vs. Quirk's administrator -- report of commissioner of sale confirmed, and proceeds ordered to be paid over.

BUCKLAND WOOLEN FACTORY.-We have already mentioned the Buckland Woolen Factory, and now refer our readers to the advertisement of the company conducting the establishment. The firm consists of Messrs. John B. Hunton, E. J. Smith, and Edward M. Spilman, of Warrenton, reliable business men. The factory will be carried on in the best manner, and it remains for the Virginia public to generously encourage and support this new and valuable manufactory. It should be the duty and pleasure of all to do so.

MEETING OF THE MEMBERS OF THE CORN EXCHANGE.—A meeting of the members of the Corn Exchange is called, to be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, at the Exchange, to take action in reference to the appointment of a committe to meet the directors of the Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad, and others, at the meeting proposed to be held on the 21st, in reference to the branch of the Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad to Georgetown.

CHARITY CONCERT.-The tickets to the charity concert, the proceeds of which are to be appropriated to the relief of the poor of the city, have been distributed to the different members of the committee appointed to dispose of them, and it is hoped that a generous rivalry will induce each member of that committee to endeavor to excel the others in the amount of receipts he will deliver to the treas-

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY .-- An attempt was made a night or two since, by a party of colored men, supposed to be from this city, to rob the corn house of a gentleman residing near the Maryland shore, about five miles below this city, but was summarily frustrated by the discharge of a guo, loaded with buckshot, into their midst. The proprietor happened to discover the attempt, and was prepared for the thieves.

KEV. MR. McKIM. - This divine closed his ministerial labors at St. John's Church night before last, upon which occasion he delivered a very fervent and impressive farewell discourse. The kindest wishes of the congregation of St. John's, for the welfare and usefulness of their esteemed rector, accompany him to his new field of duty.—Norfolk Journal.

The Rev. gentleman is expected in this city next week to assume the Rectorship of Christ

MAGNIFICENT ESTATE. - Major John D Rogers, of Fauquier, has leased, for a term of years, from S. Wellford Corbin, Esq., his estate "Farley Vale," on the Rappahannock, 10 miles below Fredericksburg, containing about 1,000 acres. This is believed to be one of the most productive and valuable farms on the GOVERNMENT SALE.—The frame buildings at the upper end of Prince street, known as L'Overture hospital, a government hospital for colored people, was sold on Wednesday last at public auction, the hospital having been broken up-for the sum of $1,400. The purchasers were Messrs. McCable, Pulmam and

WOOD FOR THE POOR. -The Mayor has received several proposals for furnishing the city with wood to supply the poor during the approaching winter, but as the arrangements for raising the requisite amount of funds to pay for the same have not been completed, he has arrived at no determination respecting them.

COUNTY JAIL. - There are now confined in the County Jail only sixteeen prisoners, and most of them are imprisoned on minor charges. I nov 14

POTOMAC RIVER NAVIGATION.-A large fleet of coal vessels arrived here yesterday evening from Georgetown, where some of them had been detained for four or five days, in consequence of the low water in the harbor of that town, and this morning started for various ports. The captains of some of these vessels were by no means mealy mouthed in their expressions concerning the opposition of some of the people of Georgetown to the reconstruction of the Aqueduct of the Alexandria Canal, which, when completed, will enable coal vessels to receive their cargoes here, where there is always a sufficiency of water, and where the facilities for loading coal are unequaled.

PHILOSOPHY OF MUSIC.—The Rev. Mr. Munsey delivered his famous lecture on the Philosophy of Music last night in the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and well did it sustain and justify the high encomiums that have been passed upon it by the press in various sections of the State, and we but reiterate an of repeated expression when we say that as an aesthetic prelection it was perfect in all its Noisy TERENADE. - A recently married gentlemen, who resides in the Southern section of the city, was serenaded last night, in a rath er noisy manner, but being of a philosophical turn of mind, he acted sensibly, and by opening his house and hospitably entertaining all his visitors, made many friends.

HENRY WARNER. -The Henry Warner mentioned in yesterday's Gazette as having mured a comrade in the U.S. Marine Corps, on Monday night last in Norfolk, was a former resident of this city, and at one time worked as a printer in this office. He has a brother now living in this city.

ACCIDENT.-A young man named Fisher, employed in the spoke factory of Mr. Rosenthal, corner of Duke street and the strand, had four of his fingers so mutilated, while at work there yesterday evening, as to require their am-

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The races over the National course are now about over. To-day there was to be a grand tournament, for which 30 knights were entered. The prize offered is a saddle, bridle, spurs and a spear.

CHAIN BRIDGE.—The flooring of the chain bridge across the Potomac is reported as sadly out of repair and in such a condition as to make travel across it dangerous.

HAY SCALES .-- The new city hay scales have been erected and adjusted, and Mr. Weedon is gether with fine Beaver Suits, and a variety now prepared to weigh all the hay that is grown has now fairly opened, and many of that species of the feathery tribe are now finding their way to market.

SHERIFF'S SALE. -Attention is called to the advertisement, in another column, of Sheriff's sale, to take place to-morrow.
